

PATH TO SUCCESS IN CONVERSATION WITH GHULAM ALAHI

Silent supporter who is helping many young ones from challenged backgrounds through sport.

Ghulam Alahi is a dedicated philanthropist offering his extensive expertise and knowledge to a variety of pro bono cases. He plays an active role within numerous charities including Path To Success which empowers women in disability to turn inability into ability. Ghulam's experience and insight encouraged him to become a mentor and support young athletes' development in order to reach their potential and achieve their career goals. A long-standing passion for sports and mentoring was a driving force when establishing Vision Consulting Sports Management.

Vision Consulting Sports Management is an organisation which strives to encourage and empower athletes to reach their potential, offering a wide range of services to support their journey. They believe in creating genuine relationships with their clients in order to provide the bespoke service each individual requires. It is important they understand their clients' career and life aspirations, as well as those of their family. This enables them to take on a new, holistic approach to sports management and representation

“Giving the ability to make changes for the future.”

1. Why are you passionate about philanthropy?

Philanthropy to me is all about impacting lives with more resources and opportunity; giving the ability to make changes for the future, and more importantly for the generations to come.

2. Why are you supporting PTS?

Vision Consulting Sports Management have vested interest in empowering Women in sports. I have decided to support PTS because of their active efforts within this endeavour, also their transparency in funding. With PTS, I know that 100% of my contribution will go directly to the athletes.

3. How do you think your contribution will affect 'empowering female athletes in disability sport'.

By supporting PTS and Jordanne, I know that this will inspire and encourage more female athletes in disability sports.

4. Tell us a few words of advice about 'Life, hard work and determination'.

Keep your dreams alive; understand to achieve anything requires faith, hard-work, determination and dedication.

5. What is your favourite quote?

- Success in life comes when you simply refuse to give up, with goals so strong that obstacles, failure, and loss only act as motivation.
